

Motion to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct a Sentence
By a Person in Federal Custody

(Motion Under 28 U.S.C. § 2255)

Instructions

1. To use this form, you must be a person who is serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a federal court. You are asking for relief from the conviction or the sentence. This form is your motion for relief.
2. You must file the form in the United States district court that entered the judgment that you are challenging. If you want to challenge a federal judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, you should file the motion in the federal court that entered that judgment.
3. Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.
4. You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury.
5. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit a brief or arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum.
6. If you cannot pay for the costs of this motion (such as costs for an attorney or transcripts), you may ask to proceed in forma pauperis (as a poor person). To do that, you must fill out the last page of this form. Also, you must submit a certificate signed by an officer at the institution where you are confined showing the amount of money that the institution is holding for you.
7. In this motion, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different judge or division (either in the same district or in a different district), you must file a separate motion.
8. When you have completed the form, send the original and _____ copies to the Clerk of the United States District Court at this address:

Clerk, United States District Court for Address
City, State Zip Code

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.

9. CAUTION: You must include in this motion all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge. And you must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this motion, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.
10. CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.

12. For this motion, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground.

GROUND ONE: The Supreme Court has significantly narrowed the statute under which petitioner was convicted and petitioner's actions no longer constitute crimes under the federal corruption statute.

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

On August 12, 2014, Mr. Miserendino pled guilty to one count of Conspiracy to Commit Bribery of a Public Official, and one count of Acceptance of a Bribe by a Public Official, pursuant to Sections 371 and 201(b)(2)(A) of Title 18, respectively. By pleading guilty, Mr. Miserendino accepted the "Statement of Facts" prepared by the government. This document states that in exchange for bribes, Miserendino and [co-defendant] Toy provided official action including the following:

- i. assisting in the preparation of Statements of Work for tasks that Company A and Company B . . .
- ii. influencing . . . other government officials to further . . . [two companies'] efforts to obtain U.S. Government contracts;
- iii. influencing . . . MSC contractors to further . . . [two companies'] efforts to obtain U.S. government subcontracts
- iv. providing favorable treatment to Company A and Company B in connection with U.S. Government task orders.

On June 27, 2016, the Supreme Court decided McDonnell v. United States, which significantly narrows the definition of "official act" under Section 201. Consequently the four "official actions" listed in the Statement of Facts no longer constitutes a basis for Mr. Miserendino's guilty plea. See the attached memorandum.

13. Is there any ground in this motion that you have not previously presented in some federal court? If so, which ground or grounds have not been presented, and state your reasons for not presenting them:

This claim is based on the Supreme Court decision decided less than one year ago. Because the basis for this claim is new, it has not been previously presented in a federal court.

14. Do you have any motion, petition, or appeal now pending (filed and not decided yet) in any court for the you are challenging? Yes ☐ No ☒

If "Yes," state the name and location of the court, the docket or case number, the type of proceeding, and the issues raised.

15. Give the name and address, if known, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of the you are challenging:
- (a) At the preliminary hearing:
Steven Lee Duckett, Jr. and David Benowitz, 409 7th Street NW, Washington DC, 20004
- (b) At the arraignment and plea:
Steven Lee Duckett, Jr. and David Benowitz, 409 7th Street NW, Washington DC 20004

- (c) Give the length of the other sentence:
- (d) Have you filed, or do you plan to file, any motion, petition, or application that challenges the judgment or sentence to be served in the future? Yes ☐ No ☐
18. TIMELINESS OF MOTION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2255 does not bar your motion.*
This motion is timely because the basis for this decision, the McDonnell decision was decided on June 27, 2016. Under 28 U.S.C. Section 2255, a motion challenging this conviction may be brought within one year of the McDonnell decision. See attached affidavit.

* The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2255, paragraph 6, provides in part that:

A one-year period of limitation shall apply to a motion under this section. The limitation period shall run from the latest of –

- (1) the date on which the judgment of conviction became final;
- (2) the date on which the impediment to making a motion created by governmental action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the movant was prevented from making such a motion by such governmental action;
- (3) the date on which the right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if that right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
- (4) the date on which the facts supporting the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
